

Privacy Policy

Gifted Philanthropy Ltd is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This policy (together with our terms of use and any other documents referred to) sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us. Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

For the purpose of the Data Protection Act 1998 (the Act), the data controller is Gifted Philanthropy Ltd, Savage's House, 15A Savage's Close, Leamington Spa, CV33 9RL.

Information we may collect from you

We may collect and process the following data about you:

Information that you provide by filling in forms or by contacting us through www.giftedphilanthropy.co.uk (our site). This includes information provided when you submit an enquiry or request an appointment or call back, when you subscribe for email notifications or newsletters, when you book an event with us, when you submit your CV or an application for a job with us, when you respond to a survey or questionnaire or when you request other services. We may also ask you for information when you report a problem with our site.

If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence. We may also ask you to complete surveys that we use for research purposes, although you do not have to respond to them.

IP addresses

We may collect information about your computer, including where available your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration to analyse trends, track user movements and gather broad demographic information.

Where we store your personal data

The data that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). By submitting your personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this privacy policy.

We will take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

Uses made of the information

We use information held about you in the following ways:

- to provide you with the information or services that you request
- to ensure that content from our site is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer
- to provide you with information, products or services that you request from us or which we feel may interest you, where you have consented to be contacted for such purposes
- to carry out our obligations arising from any contracts entered into between you and us
- to allow you to participate in interactive features of our service, when you choose to do so
- to notify you about changes to our service.

We may also use your data to provide you with information about events and services which may be of interest to you and we may contact you about these by post, telephone or email.

If you do not want us to use your data in this way please contact our Data Compliance Officer.

Disclosure of your information

We may disclose your personal information to any member of our company. We may disclose your personal information to third parties:

- if Gifted Philanthropy Ltd or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by it about its clients will be one of the transferred assets
- if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms of use or terms of engagement and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of Gifted Philanthropy Ltd, our clients, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.
